

Senior Director, Public Policy and Government Relations

U.S. Mortgage Insurers is seeking a Senior Director of Public Policy and Government Relations. USMI is the sole trade association focused exclusively on private mortgage insurance's unique role in the housing market, and is comprised of the leading mortgage insurance companies in the U.S. Our association is dedicated to a housing finance system backed by private capital that enables access to affordable, sustainable homeownership opportunities for borrowers, while protecting taxpayers from credit risk.

USMI team members are high-performing, mission-driven and work in a flexible and collaborative environment. We engage with policymakers, industry executives, and thought leaders on a regular basis. Through our association management company, employees enjoy competitive salaries and benefits, professional development opportunities, and a hybrid work schedule.

Job Functions:

The Senior Director of Public Policy and Government Relations will play a leading role in designing and executing public policy strategies to help meet the priorities of USMI's members. Duties and responsibilities will include engaging with agency and industry stakeholders; collaboratively working with member representatives and committees; tracking, analyzing, and drafting responses to regulatory proposals and actions; analyzing reports, data, research, and policy developments that may impact the organization's priorities and the housing policy environment; and providing subject-matter support for various communications materials published by the organization. The position reports to the President of USMI and is based in Washington, D.C. Occasional travel may be necessary.

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree or equivalent is required.
- Candidate must show 7-10 years of relevant experience in public policy, regulatory, industry, or legislative roles.
- Candidate must be articulate, confident and demonstrate professional speaking abilities.
- Excellent written communications skills.
- Proficiency in developing and maintaining collaborative relationships with internal and external stakeholders.
- Ability to source, synthesize and communicate policy developments efficiently and effectively.
- Superior project and time management skills.
- Proficiency with business software applications, including Microsoft Office.
- Knowledge of housing finance, banking, insurance, or capital markets is a plus.

We are an Equal Opportunity Employer committed to diversity and inclusion in the workplace.

Location:

This position is located in Washington, D.C.

Please send a resume and cover letter to: careers@usmi.org